DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the plurality of spaced apart drive towers of claim 1, line 6, claim 4, lines 7-8, claim 7, lines 3-4, claim 12, line 8 and claim 14, lines 3-4 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 7, 9, and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Davis (5,435,495).

Davis shows a center pivot irrigation system including a pivot support assembly (14) including an upstanding pipe (10) connected to a water source (12), a horizontally extending pipe portion (36) fluidly connected at the upper end of the upstanding pipe (10), an elongated irrigation pipeline (16) having inner (34) and outer ends, supported upon a plurality of spaced apart drive towers with the inner end of the pipeline (34) being fluidly connected to the horizontally extending pipe (36). The inner end of the pipeline (34) can be disconnected from the horizontally extending pipe (36) while maintaining the inner end of the pipeline (34) in alignment with the horizontally extending pipe (36) of the pivot support assembly (14). A support member or disconnect alignment assembly (50, 46) is secured to and extends between the horizontally extending pipe (36) and the inner end of the pipeline (34), and is adapted to maintain the inner end of the pipeline (34) in alignment with the horizontally extending pipe (36) when the elongated irrigation pipeline (34) is disconnected from the horizontally extending pipe (36). Regarding claims 12 and 14, the elongated irrigation pipeline (16) is comprised of a plurality of pipe sections (30 and 16).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 3, 6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Davis (5,435,495) in view of Reinke (3,936,117).

Davis shows all aspects of the applicant's invention as set forth in claims 1, 4 and 7, but does not disclose a flex joint provided on the horizontally extending pipe portion. However, Reinke shows a flex joint (30). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the applicant's invention to add the flex joint (30) of Reinke to the horizontally extending pipe (36) of Davis in order to adjust the irrigation system for elevation changes in the surrounding area.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 10 and 11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Reinke (3,608,826) shows a center pivot irrigation system including a flex joint and drive members. Ames (4,041,975) includes a flex joint and alignment control system for a center pivot irrigation system.
